Cattle Rattle

Official Publication of the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis
Breeders

December 2016

A Message from the President

Hello Fellow Santa Gertrudis Breeders,

As the Holiday Season is now in full swing I want to send thanks to each and every one of you, not only for your friendship, but also for your commitment to Santa Gertrudis Cattle. There are lots of good things happening within the breed and now is the time for us to expand on them.

Briggs Ranches, Harris Riverbend Farms and Corpordon Acres had a very successful weekend, at the Tri Star Sale, selling a large number of bulls, commercial females and Purebred Santa Gertrudis. Good prices for their bulls and commercial females continue to prove that the commercial cattleman is taking notice. Because of performance testing and DNA verified EPD's, cattleman are coming to the realization that Santa Gertrudis offer predictable efficiency and profitability.

In the last issue of the "Cattle Rattle", I talked about the need to gain test your bulls. To that end, I would like to ask for your help. I would like for those who are interested in selling bulls to get in touch with me. My thought is that we start planning a sale that features Star 5 commercial females and a large group of performance tested bulls. This is something that will take proper planning to ensure that we have cattle in the pipeline for the first and subsequent years, but I think it is an important step that needs to be made.

In addition, plans are in place for the annual "International Santa Gertrudis Super Sale" in Houston during the Houston Livestock Show. The sale will be on the grounds at the Houston Livestock Show at 6:00 PM on Friday March 10, 2017. If you are interested in consigning, download the nomination form at Midcoastsantagertrudis.com. There is a room block (first come, first served) at the Crowne Plaza NRG Stadium. The Crowne's number is (713) 748-3221. Give them a call now to reserve your room.

Also, Look for coming information on the "Norvall and Anna Sells" junior heifer show on our website and Facebook page. Details are being worked out now and should be available soon.

I hope that everyone has a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Travel safe and stay warm. Feel free to call me at (979) 337-4151 at anytime to discuss the issues that you find important.

With Warmest Regards,

Allen Grainger

25-50-25, interesting numbers. An article written several years ago by Troy Marshall, BEEF Magazine contributing editor, noted over time the beef business would evolve toward a system which values cattle and carcasses on merit rather than averages. Recently this evolution has picked-up steam with alliances, niche markets, marketing grids, price formulas, and value-enhanced programs becoming more and more commonplace in the industry. How is this move toward value-based marketing impacting Santa Gertrudis seedstock producers?

Marshall, as well as other industry experts, see seedstock operations falling into one of three distinct groups, 25-50-25. 25% of seedstock operations will reap huge financial rewards in a value based marketplace by offering the type and kind of cattle that ensure profitability for all sectors of the beef industry. These are operations that have an eye on increasing efficiencies of production while incorporating the genetics needed for their commercial bull and replacement female buying customers to market uniform calves that consistently hit ever-narrowing carcass endpoint targets. Performance information and documented genetics will go a long way in determining animal value; therefore, data collection combined with the utilization of selection tools will heavily influence breeding program direction.

The middle 50% of seedstock producers will see marginal returns to their operations. Why just marginal? Genetics. Value-based marketing will link all industry segments from seedstock producer to the retailer. Value will not be determined by an animal's contribution to a single sector of the industry, but by the animal's value to all beef business members. The ability to provide a consistent and uniform product influences the profitability of cattle as they move through the production change. Consistency and uniformity means that cattle will possess similar genetics and performance patterns. In order to capture the greatest amount of value, Santa Gertrudis breeders must recognize how certain genetic lines perform and utilize this information to fine tune their breeding objectives and meet the needs of their targeted customer base. Lastly, many industry experts see the remaining 25% of seedstock producers having to subsidize their operation in order survive in a marketplace that is based on merit, not averages.

25-50-25, is the seedstock sector falling into 3 distinct groups? I don't know, but I do know value-based marketing is gaining momentum industry-wide. Most beef business experts agree the way cattle trade is changing and will continue to change, value is being rewarded and will be even more so moving forward.

June 10 -17th - 2017 National Junior Santa Gertrudis Show; Lake Charles, LA

Dear Jr. Mid-Coast Members,

Hello everyone! I hope y'all had an amazing Thanksgiving with friends and family. I know I did and I ate way too much food!

Majors are fast approaching and I hope everyone has gotten their entries done as those deadlines have passed or are really close to being here. Just a reminder, SGBI membership will be checked at the major shows. You must be a paid member in order to show, so if you are not, you will need to pay your SGBI dues. There will be a social on Sunday, January 17th at 2:00 p.m. at Fort Worth. This is sponsored by the National Board and is always a good time. Mid-Coast is also trying to put together something for the juniors during the Houston Jr. Show. If you have any ideas, please let me know. You can drop me a text or email. I can't wait to see my "gert family" having good ole fun, doing what we love!

Also if you haven't heard the National Show is in Louisiana, and they are planning some great things. I know it will be a wonderful time for everyone who plans on attending. Make sure you 'like' their Facebook page! Hotel information is already posted. If you have not made reservations, put it on your list of "To Do" while making reservations for the majors.

Remember that your Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis Association Junior dues are due January 1st. We can renew and pay on-line this year! Just go to the membership tab at <http://midcoastsantagertrudis.com>! While you're there, take a look at the updated website. Don't forget to enter the photo contest!

Last but not least, I hope everyone has been extra good for Santa and has done all their Christmas shopping. I hope 2016 has treated you well.

I just want y'all to be safe and have fun! See you soon!

Sincerely,

*Emaline Robinson,
Jr. President*

Mid-Coast Junior Association Scrapbook

It's hard to believe that Nationals in Florida was almost half a year ago and we are in full swing with the holidays and major cattle shows. We hope everyone has had a successful fall fair season and are enjoying your Santa Gertrudis heifer projects and all the other activities you are involved in.

In order to get a jump-start on the Mid-Coast Junior Association Scrapbook for completion and judging at the NJSGHS in Louisiana in June, we would like to start now! We would like for the Juniors to complete some biographical information for us and send in several photos as soon as possible so that we can create a junior page for each exhibitor in Mid-Coast. We hope to create a template page that we input all this information into and then make a collage of your pictures around the templated information. We welcome any suggestions on how to make the scrapbook the best it can be!

THIS IS A PROJECT FOR EACH JUNIOR MEMBER! We need your help to make this successful. Each Junior member in Mid-Coast will be highlighted and it is a team project to make it a great book for National competition in Louisiana!

So, please send the following information in as soon as possible for each junior member:

 Any other biographical information you wish to share.
 Also, please plan to share 4-5 pictures of you with your heifers, a school picture, family photo or pictures of your other affiliations to be used on YOUR page!

ADDITIONAL PAGES for scrapbook – we would also like to highlight shows and activities that Mid-Coast members have been involved in as a group (county fairs, major shows, field days, other cattle events). If you have been to any events, please send in a report (where, when, who, what you did, etc.) so we can showcase the events you are involved in. We welcome newspaper articles/ clippings and photos from these events. Any photos from Nationals 2016 or any other cattle shows that have happened since June 2016 or will happen in the spring, PLEASE send. We will begin to compile this information and hope to have a majority of it completed by the Mid-Coast show in April and then just add to it to finish up the book by June. In the Spotlight

By Trey Stegint, Mid-Coast Junior Secretary

Getting to know Kaden Leonard...

Age: 10

Years Showing: 2

What made you choose the Santa Gertrudis breed? My family was already established in showing gert show heifers so I decided to follow in my sister Kaylee's footsteps.

What is your favorite show and why? My favorite show is the Grimes County Fair. I like this show because it is close to home and not cold.

What is the best memory you have from the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis show? I think the best memory was two years ago when I won my class. This was a very exciting time for me.

What made you choose to join the Mid-Coast Santa Gertrudis association? I chose this Association because it is right near my house and their annual show is at the same place we have our county fair.

What is your favorite thing about showing? My favorite thing about showing is getting to see all my friends and family.

What would you say is the biggest impact that showing has had on your life? Showing has taught me how to take responsibility and how to win and lose with grace and style.

Where are you planning on showing this year? I am going to be showing at Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, Grimes County and the National Junior Santa Gertrudis Show in Louisiana.

What is your favorite memory from Nationals? This would have to be last year when I got to spend time with my friends and family at the beach in Florida.

What has your biggest accomplishment been so far in showing? I think this would have to be when I won showmanship at the Mid-Coast annual heifer show.

What has been your favorite thing about Nationals? This would be traveling the country with my friends and family and getting to do what I love — showing heifers.

What do you hope to accomplish this year at Nationals? I would really like to win showmanship. This would be an amazing thing to do.

Do you plan on continuing to raise Santa Gertrudis cattle even after you are done showing? Yes, I do. My family wishes to raise them for a long time.

Is there anything else you would like to add that you want the other members to know? I believe that about covers it, and I just wanna wish everybody a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
